

Residency Certificate (SKTT)

Residency Certificate (SKTT) Overview

The Residency Certificate in Indonesia, known as the Surat Keterangan Tempat Tinggal (SKTT), is a crucial document for foreigners residing in the country, particularly for those on long-term visas like KITAS (Temporary Stay Permit) or KITAP (Permanent Stay Permit).

Foreigners who hold a KITAS or KITAP are typically required to obtain an SKTT.

Required Documents

From Applicant

- Bali Visa application form
Completed our Bali Visa Application Form: The form should be filled out accurately and completely.
- Copy of Passport
A photocopy of your valid passport, including the personal details page and current visa page.
- KITAS/KITAP
A copy of your Temporary Stay Permit (KITAS) or Permanent Stay Permit (KITAP), depending on your residency status in Indonesia.
- Proof of Address
This could be a rental agreement or a letter from your landlord confirming your residence at the address. Some localities may require a statement from the neighborhood chief (RT/RW).
- Photographs
Recent passport-style color photo (digital format).

From Sponsor

- KTP (Indonesia ID Card) & Kartu Keluarga (Family Certificate).

Processing time

Up to 7 days
Validity 1 year

Visa Fees and Processing Time

- Company Sponsorship
- 60-Day Visa Approval
- Immigration Fees, and Taxes
- Can be extended twice, each extension for an additional 60 days.
Processing takes up to 3-5 hours

Service	Price
Residency Certificate (SKTT)	IDR 1,000,000